Traditions

Homework

Attached to this newsletter, we have included writing/literacy homework. Since we will be starting to read and learn about different traditions in literacy, we would like to learn about your family's favorite tradition. Please help your child to fill out fill out the attached questionnaire and return it to school by Friday, October 28th. Your child will use the information to write and present a personal narrative about their special tradition.

Halloween Party

We will have a snack in the afternoon following Trunk-or-Treat on Monday, October 31st. We still need the following items: nacho cheese, chopped tomatoes, can sliced black olives, apple cider, cinnamon butter. We also need help setting and cleaning up. Please send in a note letting us know if you are able to send something in.

Please remember to check out the Chatfield School website. We will be putting pictures and announcements on periodically featuring important things happening in the 3rd Grade.

Literacy Corner

This week we are reviewing the skills learned during the Off to Adventure Theme. We will read two different stories and compare them: Radio Rescue and Midnight Ride. Students will be doing small projects on all the stories in the theme this week.

The October reading calendar is due
Tuesday, November
1st.
