Progress Reports

Progress Reports

Progress Reports will be sent home on Friday, December 16th. There is plenty of time for your child to bring up their grades before the end of semester 1.

Final Exams

7th grade will have final exams in January at the end of Semester 1. These exams will be a cumulative of the semester. Exams will be given in ELA, Science, Social Studies and Math. Reviews will be given for these subjects.

Candy Grams

The National Honor Society will be selling candy grams for 25 cents during lunch this week.

Science Fair

Science Fair project hand booklets will be sent home this week. There is a suggested timeline for the project with due dates. Please review this with your child. The Science Fair will take place on Thursday, March 8th 2012.

Thank You

The 7th grade staff would like to thank the parents that volunteered to drive and attend the field study to Meadowbrook and BD's Mongolian BBQ. Without your support our students would not have the opportunities they receive.

This week's itinerary

ELA

Students will continue working in their drama book groups. They will be expected to turn in their books and worksheets on Monday, December 19th. Students will complete writing prompts in their journals daily and have two grammar sheets this week.

Social Studies

Students will begin learning about the geography of the middle east. They will also finish their global company paper and begin working on a presentation to present to the class about their global company, which will be given on Monday, December 19th.

Science

Students will have a test on Tuesday, December 20th. This test will include information covered on a review including the weather unit. They will also be studying cold and warm fronts.
