Chatfield School

Week of October 10, 2011

MEAP weeks: October 11-13 / 18-19

MEAP

Students will be taking the MEAP test for Reading, Writing and Math October 11-13th and October 18-19th. It is important that students rest well the night before and get a healthy breakfast the morning of the test. Good luck 7th graders!

Cherri Weir Photography Fundraiser

All money and unused cards for the Cherri Weir Photography fundraiser MUST be turned in no later than Tuesday, October 11th.

Detroit Field Study

Just an update that the 7th grade class will be taking a field study to Rivard Plaza in Detroit for a river walk and

Cass Community Services on Wednesday, October 26th. We will be donating the tires that we collected on our recent river clean-up to Cass Community Services. Permission slips will be sent home soon.

Christmas Carol Field Study

Just an update that the 7th grade class will be taking a field study to Meadowbrook Theatre for the production of "A Christmas Carol" on Thursday, December 1st. Permission slips and costs will be sent home soon.

Trunk or Treat

Halloween candy is accepted by donations to the homerooms for The Chatfield Trunk or Treat on Monday, October 31st.

This week's itinerary

ELA

Students have finished reading the Ghost Canoe Mystery and have started a writing project including "The Missing Chapter" OR "Alternate Ending" to the book. These papers will be due at the end of the week.

Social Studies

Students will continue learning about Egypt and North Africa. There will be a packet of questions over this chapter for section 2 due on Wednesday, as well as a hieroglyphics translation assignment.

Science

Students will be working with phonology, heat transfer, conduction and conduction through materials.
