

Summer Reading Rubric for Crash or Loser

Name _____

	1	2	3	4
Content	The paragraph does not contain any of the requirements as discussed in a level four.	The paragraph does not contain two or three of the requirements as discussed in level four.	The paragraph contains all but one of the requirements as discussed in a level four.	The paragraph contains three character traits, examples from the text, and an explanation to why or why not you would like the character as a friend.
Neatness and Overall Quality	The visual representation is not neatly done and the paragraph is not neatly written. They do not show that the student has put forth their best effort.	The visual representation is neatly done and shows the student's best effort. The paragraph is not neatly written and does not show the student's best effort.	The visual representation is not neatly done and does not show the student's best effort. The paragraph is neatly done and does show the student's best effort.	The visual representation is neatly done and the paragraph is typed or neatly written. Both show that the student put forth their best effort.
Creativity	The visual representation is not creative or original.	The visual representation shows little effort towards creativity and originality,	The visual representation shows an effort towards creativity and originality	The visual representation is very creative and original.
Conventions	The paragraph contains many spelling, grammar, or punctuation errors.	The paragraph contains three or four spelling, grammar, or punctuation errors.	The paragraph contains one or two spelling, grammar, or punctuation errors.	The paragraph contains no spelling, grammar, or punctuation errors.

Comments:

Points: _____/20

Overall Grade: _____