

Welcome to The Chatfield School
Acceptable Guest Internet Use Policy

This public access wireless Internet connection is made available by The Chatfield School for the convenience of visitors to our facilities.

The Chatfield School makes no guarantee, expressed or implied, with respect to the quality or content of the information available on the Internet. The Chatfield School is not responsible for any damages, direct or indirect, arising from any individual's use of an Internet access computer located in this facility.

Users should be aware that the Internet is not a secure medium and that third parties may be able to obtain information regarding users' activities.

Users of this wireless public access point must comply with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, including laws governing copyright and the transmission and dissemination of information.

If users disregard the law in their use of this wireless public access point, the crime will be reported to appropriate law enforcement agencies.

Persons who violate this policy in any way will be directed to cease use of the wireless public access point temporarily or permanently, depending on the severity of the violation.

All users of the Internet are expected to use this resource in a responsible and courteous manner, consistent with the educational purposes for which it is provided. This includes:

- Recognizing that the Internet must be shared and used in a manner which respects the rights of others and refraining from activity that prevents others from using it.
- Refraining from illegal, unethical use such as hacking, distributing unsolicited advertising, invading the privacy of others or misrepresenting oneself as another user.
- Refraining from damaging or altering the setup of the equipment (hardware), or attempting to modify or delete the installed software.
- Refraining from violation of software license agreements.
- Refraining from the deliberate propagation of viruses and worms.
- Refraining from intentional violation of another patron's privacy, or any other harassing or defamatory activities.

The Chatfield School reserves the right to ask individuals to discontinue the display of information and images which may cause a disruption to other visitors as determined by the Board, staff and Superintendent.

Users are financially liable for any damage caused to The Chatfield School's computer equipment or software by violations of this policy.
