Curriculum Notes

ELA: Students have started their poetry unit and are reading the book Out of the Dust by Karen Hesse. This book is written in poetry verse and outlines the 1930's in the Panhandle. Students will be writing poetry and sharing their poems in a Poetry Cafe that will take place on the last day of school in the Chatfield Commons (June 9th).

Social Studies: Students have been learning about the places they will visit on their Pure Michigan Trip. They will begin working on their research presentations for the locations of Sault Ste. Marie, Mackinaw City and Mackinac Island. They have been given vocabulary words to study for their final exam which will take place on Wednesday, June 8th.

Science: We are wrapping up Structure, Function, and Information Processing of Living Things. Review materials were posted on Google Classroom last week; the test will be this Friday, May 20. Students can use their notes for the test.
